

Title: Merchandising Analyst

Part-time or Full-time

Hamacher Resource Group (HRG) is currently seeking to hire an experienced Merchandising Analyst to become an integral part of their Category Research & Analysis team in Waukesha, WI.

- Working with the Category Research and Analysis department to follow business rules, research, merchandise, proofread, and layout assigned planogram and data analytic projects with support materials for assigned clients
- Contribute and support the department with overflow merchandising projects for both regular and custom clients
- Retail or space management experience with consumer packaged goods a plus
- Exceptional attention to detail
- Possess deductive reasoning skills
- Command of written and verbal communication skills
- Understanding of merchandising and marketing in a retail setting
- Ability to research and analyze information and retrieve beneficial data
- Ability to meet deadlines using a high degree of organizational skills, prioritizing, multi-tasking, flexibility, and time management
- Demonstrated commitment to continuous learning about the retail consumer healthcare industry
- Good communication and collaboration skills in order to ensure positive relationships with fellow employees and clients
- Bachelor's Degree and minimum 1-2 years related experience

About Hamacher: Hamacher Resource Group focuses on improving results across the retail supply chain for product manufacturers, distributors, retailers, technology partners, and other organizations by addressing dynamic needs such as assortment planning and placement, retail execution strategy, fixture coordination, item database management, brand marketing, analytics, and pharmaceutical track and trace. Founded in 1980, HRG is a WBENC-Certified Women's Business Enterprise headquartered in Greater Milwaukee.

As part of the HRG team, you are part of the HRG family. Our employees are our greatest asset, and we know it. Not only do we offer a comprehensive benefits package, flexible work schedule, and competitive wages, we also encourage a positive work-life balance through our corporate wellness program, fun social events, volunteer opportunities, and more. We're Milwaukee Journal Sentinel's Top Workplace winners in 2017, 2018, and 2019. Learn more at www.hamacher.com and visit our Facebook page for a sense of our company culture.

